

Dalton Drops From Race

Atty. William J. Dalton, has decided due to career considerations, and in fairness to the town, not to seek election to a three-year term on the board of selectmen this year.

Dalton said that he is in the process of obtaining a professional pilot's license and will be attending school at Vero Beach, Florida for at least three months.

Since the time involved in school, will require his absence from the town immediately following the election, he feels that it would be unfair to the town to be absent for that length of time.

He will begin his studies at Flight Safety International School in Florida in the period immediately following the election. Dalton feels that during this most important period of time, with town meeting and organization of the board among the initial activities, that a selectmen should be present, and if elected, his career consideration would preclude his attendance during this time.

Dalton considers the decision to pursue the acquisition of the professional pilot's license as professional advancement and an assist to his legal firm.

He began taking flying lessons about a year ago at the Municipal Airport in North Andover and became more enthusiastic about the activity since.

The decision to pursue the flight training to advanced status was made during a recent vacation period, in which Dalton weighed the matter of continuing with the schooling, or campaigning for selectman.

The decision was finalized this week. Currently serving as moderator, Dalton was the first to announce his intent to seek

Town-School Split Over Purchasing Dept. Widens

By Linda S. Corbett

The school department's quarrel with the town purchasing agent surfaced again Tuesday night, as the school committee approved three positions in next years budget to cope with the mountains of paperwork involved in purchasing requests.

They went along with a bid specification writer for the plant engineer's organization, and another parttime spec writer and purchasing coordinator for the central office.

The committee also approved a part-time mechanics helper during its second pass at maintenance department salaries, and allowed $15,000 in the school committee account for a labor relations lawyer to help with future contract negotiations.

They turned down, however, a request for a full-time painter to help spruce up the town's school buildings, and a part-time truck driver for the maintenance department.

While generally agreeing with the one-year-old purchasing office in theory, the committee questioned if cost savings are really being effected, since additional people are needed to handle the paperwork.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert contended that the cost effectiveness depends "on the individual agent's interpretation of how much information is needed to get purchases." He said it is the added detail now required that is bogging things down.

For instance, he said, they are still waiting for a new screen for the Sanborn auditorium that has been involved in a clerical problem at town hall for months — all for a total savings of about $16.

Business Manager Edward Maguire agreed that the "relative expenses appear to be substantially more than the savings." He said money is being saved on some items in the office supply category, but that the total number of dollars is very small.

On the other hand, he said he has been trying since last spring to complete paperwork that would save the town some $15,000 to $20,000 a year in federal excise tax on gasoline for school buses. The town could purchase the gas and sell it in turn to the drivers, rather than their going to local dealers, he said, and save the tax. These are still details to be collected, however.

School Chairman David Ahouse also reminded the committee of last fall's experience when Plant Engineer Al Hart used up $100 worth of time preparing specs for $250 worth of painting.

Committeeman Joseph Finn agreed that on paper the proposal looks good. But he questioned "whether anybody on the school committee, board of selectmen or finance committee, if this was their business and their money, would allow this to go on any longer."

"They'd want to know how much money am I saving and where are the savings going to be," he went on. "We have a respon-

Dick Barron was in his usual occupation of cleaning up after another well-received buffet put on by the school food services department Wednesday night, when he was called to accept the Employee of the Year Award.

As director of food services, Barron directs all the planning and preparation of the school lunch program, the senior citizen program, and also provides banquets for various school functions.

The banquet was to recognize and honor members of the Andover school department for outstanding service.

Appointed Special Counsel

Atty. Thomas Arnold has been named special counsel to represent the town in matters relating to land use and planning by Acting Town Manager Sheldon S. Cohen.

Selectmen Monday night confirmed the appointment of the Carlisle resident who maintains law offices in Boston.

Atty. Arnold will be working with the board of health, planning board and conservation commission in dealing with matters relative to the town's growth, providing counsel for the boards as they examine subdivisions and potential problems dealing with the town's continued growth.

The Boston attorney comes to the town highly recommended, according to Acting Manager Cohen. Arnold has specialized in the field for the past eight ten years.

Among the matters he will be examining will be a possible moratorium on new sewer line construction, which is under review by selectman at the present time.

To Interview Manager Finalists

Selectmen will be meeting within the week to conduct final interviews with either two or three manager finalists.

Last week board members talked with those invited back for a second conference and were expected to make a decision on the actual finalists Wednesday night.

According to Chairman Susan T. Poore, the board may make its decision on naming the new manager within a week or so.

Mini-Clinics Scheduled

Mini-clinics will be conducted at housing for the elderly locations and the Ballard Vale United Church on the four Tuesdays during February.

Next Tuesday the mini-clinic will be conducted at The Haven from 2 to 4 p.m. On Feb. 14, the session will be at Chestnut Court, Feb. 21 at the Ballard Vale church and on Feb. 28, at Frye Circle, all from 2 to 4 p.m.

In addition, Mary Hamilton, R.N., health department nurse, will be at the Haven every Wednesday afternoon from 2 to 3 p.m.

Clinic nurses, in addition to Mrs. Hamilton, are Sally Healy, R.N., and Rita Paulekas, R.N.

Snow Removal Funds To Be Requested

Among items which will be included in a special town meeting warrant to be acted upon within the regular town meeting in April, will be an article asking $100,000 for snow removal funds.

The snow removal account was depleted by the major storm of a week ago. Groundhog predictions expected today not withstanding, the town must anticipate and plan for additional storms before winter ends. It may be remembered that snow fell a year ago during a May session of the annual town meeting.

Budgets On Agenda

Selectmen will take advantage of an extra week between regular meetings to schedule a conference session for work on examining the proposed budget for the coming fiscal year, next Monday night.

The board will meet at 7:30 p.m. at the water treatment plant.

Also, on Monday's agenda will be discussion of the proposed capital budget program.

Crossan First Program Chairman

Peter A. Crossan

A St. Lawrence University senior is serving this academic year as the first student chairman of the January interterm committee since the 4-1-4 curriculum began at St. Lawrence in 1970.

Peter A. Crossan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph S. Crossan, 8 Sequoia Lane, had already been a member of the faculty-administrator-student interterm committee during his sophomore and junior years before being named head of the 1977-78 committee. He also served three years as a senator of Thelomathesian Society, student government organization.

Interterm is a unique period in St. Lawrence's 4-1-4 academic calendar, Crossan said, when conventional class schedules are pushed aside to provide adequate time for serious inquiry into one area of particular interest.

"I place a lot of importance on interterm because it offered me an opportunity which has made a big mark on my life," Crossan noted. He referred to his enrollment in the January 1976 interterm course in sailing and navigation which involved on-campus study plus a week of actual sailing experience aboard the schooner Harvey Gamage. Life and work on board ship so appealed to him, that he took a leave of absence from the university during spring semester to be a crew member on the schooner in the Virgin Islands and then on its voyage up the Atlantic coast for summer charter cruises along the New England coast.

The summer of 1976 Crossan spent on the St. Lawrence campus making up his spring credits during two sessions of summer school. Again in January 1977 interterm he rejoined the group sailing on the Harvey Gamage, this time as an instructor for the course. During the summer of 1977 he continued to work on the schooner, moving up to the rank of first mate by the end of the season.

This January interterm Crossan is an instructor again for the SLU sailing interterm course. Students are learning piloting, celestial navigation, rules of the nautical road and general seamanship, plus studying the history, marine life, and flora and fauna of the Caribbean islands they visit during the three weeks.

After he graduates this May with a mayor in economics, Crossan expects to earn his captain's license and work again for the owner of the Harvey Gamage. One of his jobs, he said, may be to sail a new schooner from Holland to the Caribbean. And yes, his eventual plans and dreams are to have a boat and charter service of his own — all because of that interterm choice two years ago.

Crossan said his term as interterm committee chairman was a unique opportunity at St. Lawrence. A student is not often given the chance for this kind of leadership, he added.

Named to the Dean's List at Nason College, Springvale, Maine for the first semester were Connie M. Fogg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Fogg, 50 Summer St. and Lois R. Maxfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Maxfield, 111 Reservation Road, Andover.

Ski Tour Set For Sunday

The Andover Committee of the Appalachian Mountain Club is sponsoring a ski touring event Sunday at 1:30 p.m. at the Mabel B. Ward Reservation.

There will be two sections, depending on cross country ski experience.

The beginners clinic will take place on the Salem Street side of the reservation, at the barn. Parking is available on the north side of Salem, between Vine Street and Route 125. Look for the stone pillars and walk up to the barn.

Instruction in waxing and in how to ski will be available. The skiing will be over open fields and gentle slopes.

Hot cocoa will be served at the barn.

Experienced skiers will start at the parking lot of the reservation on Prospect Street, off of Route 125 with any overflow parking on the north side of the street.

The tour will begin at 1:30 p.m. and will be approximately five miles through wooded trails and open fields and over varied slopes, with a short ski back to the barn for hot cocoa.

The Alan French family, members of the Bill Koch League, is running the event, and further information is available from them.

In case of inclement weather, a notice will be run on Radio Station WCCM as well.

Snow shoes are also welcome on the outing.

Andover's Underground Railroad Featured

"Andover's Underground Railroad" is the central theme of a new historical slide show being offered to the public Sunday, Feb. 5 at 3 p.m. by the Andover historical Society at 97 Main St.

Locale of this premiere photo essay is the old William Jenkins farm beyond Salem St., near the Harold Parker forest, built in 1765. This Underground Railroad stop was one of the more important hiding places for fugitive slaves from the South who disembarked as stowaways at Boston or Salem on their way to freedom in Canada. Pictures of the farm's area of concealment will be shown.

This farm was also a meeting place for leaders of the Abolitionist Movement, including Andover's Harriet Beecher Stowe.

The William Jenkins farm had other interesting enterprises. The proprietors operated a sawmill and a soapstone quarry. Being located on the old Boston-Haverhill turnpike, stagecoaches stopped here to change tired horses for fresh. Many photographs of the exterior and interior of the house will be presented. This pictorial history was prepared by George Glennie, visual history chairman of the local Debbs Gaskill, left, page at Memorial Hall library, checks posters she made for the library's Foreign Film Series with Sue Hurwitz, film program coordinator. Program begins Friday night at the library.

Memorial Hall Library

"The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie" (1972) is scheduled to open the Foreign Film series on Friday Feb. 3, at 7:30 p.m. Directed by Luis Bunuel, this film is a social satire about a group of chic, upper-crust Parisians trying unsuccessfully to dine together.

Other films scheduled in this series are "Z", "The Magic Flute", "Blow-Up", "Shop on Main Street", "Black Orpheus", "Grand Illusion", "Clowns", and "The Third Man". Because these films are subtitled and the content is intended for mature audiences, we ask that you do not bring children to the programs.

Speed Reading

The Speed Reading course held its first class last Friday, Jan. 27. But if you are interested in taking the class there is still time to sign up. There are five remaining two-hour sessions in the series and the cost is $40. Call or drop by the Library to sign up.

St. Robert's To Offer Program

Beginning in September, 1978, St. Robert's Country Day School will offer a program designed primarily for pupils who would otherwise have "no place to go" because of the change in admission age requirements for Andover public and parochial Kindergarten effective this fall.

Planned for children whose birthdays might fall after Sept. 1, but who will be 5 by the end of February, 1979, the new Maxi-Nursery Program will be more of a pre-Kindergarten class, and will offer more in the way of readiness work in both reading and math than is found in a regular nursery class. The class will meet three days a week on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays and will have a limited registration.

For information about the Maxi-Nursery Program or either of the school's other two programs — regular nursery for children who will be four by Dec. 31 (which meets three days a week) — or Mini-Nursery Program for children who will be three-one-half by Dec. 31 (which meets two days a week), contact the school's Registrar, Mrs. Luke McSorley, 153 Deering Drive, Tewksbury before Feb. 16. St. Robert's Country Day School is in its ninth year of operations, and is a non-sectarian cooperative Nursery School.

Obituary...

LORIS G. STEFANI

Loris G. Stefani, resident of Wellfleet and formerly of Andover died Jan. 26. Mr. Stefani was born in Venice, Italy and came to Andover in 1933 where he began a career as an Interior Decorator.

Recently, Mr. Stefani operated "The Colony" of Wellfleet.

Surviving is his wife Elizabeth W. (McClellan) Stefani, daughter Anna, wife of Donald Sanford of West Hartford, Conn. and three sons, Robert J. of New York City, Marco B. and Paul Tito Stefani of Provincetown. Six grandchildren also survive. Other immediate survivors include three sisters Mrs. Tina deMichele of Milan, Italy, Mrs. Olga Guagliardo of Alessandro, Italy and Mrs. Elena Martelli-Galati of Fiesloe, Italy; two brothers, Umberto Stefani of Alessandro, Italy and Sergio Stefani of Paris, France.

Funeral services were held in Christ Episcopal Church, Andover.

sibility to the town to conduct this like a business as well."

Seifert said he had no choice but to make the request, particularly since the Finance Committee last week refused to transfer funds to make the part-time secretary in the purchasing office full-time.

FinCom Chairman Charles Wesson, on hand for the budget deliberations, said FinCom felt that adding town employees was a decision to be made by town meeting. He said the extra half-secretary would be included in the proposed 78-79 budget, at least while Acting Town Manager Sheldon Cohen reviews the purchasing activity of the past year to see if it was in fact cost effective.

"If we don't have a cost effective system," Wesson said, "then we don't want that type of system."

He said he didn't see why the school committee should have the spec writer in its budget at all. If the extra half-person is necessary, he said, it'll be in the town budget. "If it isn't, it won't be."

The Committee, however, followed Ahouse's advice that they could always withdraw their request before town meeting, but wanted to insure that there would be a new position somewhere in the budget.

The painter issue may not be a dead one, as the administration may come in with "trade-offs" when the committee makes its third and final pass at the maintenance budget before town meeting.

Plant Engineer Al Hart had maintained that there's more than enough painting needed in the town's nine schools to keep a full-time painter busy. He contended it would be cheaper to have an in-house painter at some $12,000 a year, than to hire outside contractors at two or two-and-a-half times the pay.

At the same time, he said, such a position would allow the schools to develop a

Mrs. Chauncey J. Martin

Martin - Cronin

Honeymooning in Antigua and St. Croix are Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey John Martin, who were married Saturday in St. Augustine's Church, Andover.

The bride is the former Elaine Marie Cronin, daughter of Mrs. Timothy F. Cronin, 79 Cheever Circle, and the late Mr. Cronin. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Martin of White Plains, N. Y.

The Rev. Richard T. O'Leary, O.S.A., officiated at the 12 o'clock noon nuptial mass, before the main altar banked with soft fuji mums, blush pink snapdragons, smilax and lemon leaf foliage.

Given in marriage by her uncle, John J. Cronin, the bride wore a Priscilla gown of white silk-finished satin, with a modified empire waistline, bodice of English net and Alencon lace, Queen Anne neckline and lace, tapered sleeves. The hem was accented with a matching deep border of Alencon lace and cutout appliques. The chapel-length veil of illusion was bordered with matching Alencon lace.

She carried a formal, Williamsburg elongated cascade boquet of soft-glow white roses, polished English ivy and clusters of stephanotis.

Sheila A. Cronin of New York City attended her sister as maid of honor, wearing an emerald green taffeta gown with matching ruffled stole, and carrying a bouquet of soft pink bridal roses with gerber daisies and miniature ivy.

Bridesmaids included Barbara Filkins of New York City, Susan Trulli of Providence, R. I., and Roberta Murphy and Cynthia Moss of Andover. They wore gowns of fuschia taffeta with smocked bodices and matching ruffled stoles, and carried madonna bouquets of soft pink bridal roses and miniature ivy.

Mrs. Cronin chose a long-sleeved Quiana gown in toast, with beaded neckline and cuffs, for her daughter's wedding, while the groom's mother wore a long-sleeved chiffon gown in soft, Wedgewood blue.

James Gutner of Sarasota, Fla., served as best man, and ushers included the bride's brother, Timothy F. Cronin, Jr., of Andover; Patrick Maloney of Stamford, Conn.; Jonathan Propper of Rye, N. Y., and Gary Lehr of Barrington, R. I.

A reception followed at the Lanam Club, Andover.

The new Mrs. Martin is a graduate of Our Lady of Nazareth Academy in Wakefield; Manhattanville College in Purchase, N. Y., and Katharine Gibbs School in Boston, while her husband graduated from Rye Country Day School, Rye, N. Y., and attended Columbia University and the State University of New York at Purchase. Both are graduates of the National Outdoor Leadership School in Lander, Wyo.

They plan to make their home in Ridgefield, Conn.

Burton F. Whitcomb Dies In Oregon

Burton F. Whitcomb, former Wakefield town official, died Jan. 19 in Medford, Oregon, following a long illness.

Born in Andover, son of the Montie Z. and Cora (Howe) Whitcomb, he had lived in Wakefield from 1937 until moving to Oregon two years ago. Prior to retirement, he was with Drexel-Harriman-Ripley, Inc., members of the New York stock exchange, since 1950. In 1970 he was promoted from the position of assistant vice president. He was a past president of the Boston Security Traders Association and a member of the National Association of Security Dealers and of the International Bankers Association.

First elected to the Board of Selectmen in 1947, he served on the board until 1950, at which time he was elected to the first Board of Public Works following the consolidation of the BPW. Subsequently, he returned to the Board of Selectmen, serving as chairman in 1958-'59. When the term of office was changed to three years in 1960, he was elected to the new longer term and continued to serve as a selectman until 1969, again serving as chairman during that period.

He also served on many appointed committees, including the Town Water Survey Committee, the town Parking Committee, the Precinct Change Committee, the Library and Fire Station Committee for Greenwood, the Dolbeare School Building Committee. He headed the Library and Fire Station Committee throughout its existence until the attractive building was turned over to the town. He was also chairman of the committee appointed to dispose of Hill's Boathouse on Lake Quannapowitt after the town's purchase of it in 1964.

Mr. Whitcomb was also chairman of the Robert A. Almeida Memorial Scholarship Fund and a director of the Citizens Scholarship Foundation and the Wakefield YMCA. He served as a trustee of the Melrose-Wakefield Hospital and in the early '70s did important volunteer work in the hospital's Stroke Unit.

A member of the First Parish

Burton F. Whitcomb

Congregational Church, he was a member of and a past president of the 9:29ers. Active in Masonic work, he was a member of Golden Rule Lodge, AF&AM. He was also a former member of the West Side Social Club.

At one time he was chairman of the Greater Boston Little Theatre Group and was a past president of the Quannapowitt Players.

In 1971 he was named the West Side Social Club's Citizen of the Year, and the event went down in the club's history as one of its most successful, with 200 gathered to pay tribute to the guest of honor.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Philip (Nancy Todd) O'Donnell and a son, Peter Whitcomb, of Oregon; two brothers and three sisters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Whitcomb and Mrs. Roger Whitcomb of Andover, and three grandchildren.

Memorial services for Mr. Whitcomb will be held in the Morrison Funeral home, 13 Yale Ave., Wakefield, Tuesday Feb. 7 at 8 p.m. Friends may visit with the family in the funeral home prior to the service from 7 to 9 p.m.

'You owe something to the community and you pay it off over the years, paying it off either in politics or in civic, and charitable work,' obviously he decided on civic and charitable work.

"He was just a very fine person and a great counselor to us. He taught us a great deal about the law, about people and about compassion."

Born in Lawrence, Sept. 17, 1887, Sweeney, graduated from Phillips Academy, Andover, in 1906, from Harvard University in 1910 and from the law school three years later.

Active throughout his career as a trial lawyer in his early years and primarily as a fiduciary trustee of large private estates in later years, he retired in 1975 as trustee of three charitable foundations — the White Fund, founded in 1852 and the oldest in Lawrence; the Artemas W. Stearns Trust; and the Josephine G. Russell Trust.

During his lifetime, he also found time to serve as director, president and chairman of the board of the Bay State National Bank; as director and president of the Broadway Savings Bank; and as treasurer and trustee of the Lawrence Home for the Aged.

Identified with Lawrence General Hospital for many years, he retired three years ago after serving as secretary of the board of trustees for 42 years. He also headed a hospital fund raising campaign some years ago, served a member of the advisory board and at the time of his death was an honorary trustee.

In banking circles, Sweeney was credited with keeping some of the Lawrence banks going during the Depression of the 1930's and with the merger of the Merchants Trust Company and the Bay State Bank.

Married to the former Mildred L. Steadman, who survives him, he also leaves two sons, Arthur Sweeney, Jr. of Freeport, Maine, and attorney John P. Sweeney of New York City; two daughters, Miss Joan Sweeney of Boston, and Mrs. Martha W. Read of Gladwyn, Penn.; two sisters, Misses Alice and Nora Sweeney of Andover; six grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in Christ Church and cremation followed at Linwood Cemetery, Haverhill. Burial was in Spring Grove Cemetery Andover.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Bon Secours-Lawrence General Joint Hospital Corporation.

The Language of Flowers

by Gerry Trull

If you haven't got "Green Cross" insurance (and who can afford it these days), you might welcome some hints on how to keep your plants healthy. The most important thing to remember is not to overwater them. More plants expire from drowning than any other cause. The succulents and Cacti store water in their leaves and can be watered less, but all plants have their own individual needs. The first signs of trouble are the droops which mean water me, or stem rot means a terrible cold — stop all liquids. The best thermometer is your finger. Feel the soil about one inch below the top of the pot. If it's dry, rush to the tap for warm water with confidence that you are giving your plant family the best possible care.

At TRULL'S MILL HILL FLOWER CENTER, 411 River Rd., 851-6161 we are always happy to help you solve your plant problems. And we have an extensive array of hanging, floor and table plants for your selection, grown in our own green houses. Be sure to remember your special Valentine on Feb. 14 with flowers; choose traditional violets or her favorite blossoms. Open: 9-5:30 Mon-Sat.

HELPFUL HINT

Congratulations

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

Words of congratulations are in order from all Main Street businessmen for the great job of removing the snow from the street so soon after the area's worst snow storm in history.

It was pleasing to be able to drive on Main Street early Monday morning to open our stores for a regular business day and find the huge mounds of snow cleared away from the entire shopping district.

This is another accomplishment by the Department of Public Works that is worthy of comment as it reminds us of the good organizational structure within the town's government.

Dangerous Problem

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

I would like to call attention to a potentially dangerous problem that has developed concerning horseback riders and motorists.

Horseback riding in Essex county is becoming an increasingly popular pastime. Because of the vast amount of construction in the past few years, patrons of the sport have lost many of their trails which brings a lot more horses out onto the roads.

The law states that the operator of a motor vehicle approaching an animal (livestock) must slow down and proceed with caution on signal from the person in charge. The animal has the right of way.

My personal experiences show that the people observing these laws are few and far between.

I would urge motor vehicle operators to observe this law. There is a very good reason for it.

Horses are farsighted animals. Their eyes do not focus rapidly so they are easily frightened by something moving up on them quickly. Most horses will react calmly if they have a chance to focus on the object. This is especially important now, when the roads are so narrow.

Allow me to point out that even the best of riders may have trouble controlling 800 lbs. of frightened horseflesh.

So please, when you come upon horseback riders on the road, observe the law by slowing down until you are past. If you observe the rider having trouble, stop a moment. Most riders will gladly turn their horse into a driveway to let you pass. The slight inconvenience seems a small price to pay for the safety of another human being and his horse.

Canine Encore Tuned To 60-Article Warrant

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

Something to command the interest of everyone was promised for this year's town meeting, and between town officials and residents, the 60-articles fulfill that pledge.

Major expenditure items for school planning and water main installation are interspersed among such things as new bylaws on sewer tie-ins, providing continued bus transportation and the most popular feature of the past few annual and special sessions — the dogs.

Sidney P. White has inserted an article to again ask the town to amend the dog leash law, this one stiffening up the restrictions to include having canines on a leash not less than six feet in length when off the owner's property.

This item is similar to the one proposed at last year's annual town meeting, approved by the voters and subsequently disapproved by the attorney general. At the October session, Citizens for Humane Dog Control presented a more liberal leash law, which was adopted by town meeting and approved by the attorney general.

The bylaw dealing with a moratorium on sewer tie-ins is in the warrant to meet the deadline. Selectmen this week appointed a special counsel, Atty. Thomas Arnold, to assist the town in its land use and growth policy planning, and the moratorium will be among the issues to be studied by the lawyer, prior to town meeting.

A major expenditure item includes $1 million for engineering, and architectural planning for meeting secondary educational plant needs. The school department currently is examining options which include renovation of East Junior High, with additions, or new construction of junior high and auditorium facilities on the Shawsheen road junior high-high school campus.

Also, carrying a heavy price tag is the proposed relief for water quality problems in the Shawsheen area, pegged at $1,040,000 for replacement of mains in that area and other problem sections of the town.

This item may be reduced by town meeting. The public works department will employ a foam-plug cleaning method for the Shawsheen water mains when the winter weather breaks to see if this can solve some of the dirty water problems in Shawsheen. If successful, possibly some of the major construction work can be avoided temporarily.

Included in this year's warrant will be a request for $80,000 to complete the topographic mapping of the town, a program initiated with last year's town meeting, with a commitment to pay the remainder for the project this year.

Other financial considerations will include $90,000 to remodel and renovate the town hall, $100,000 for new water meters, $200,000 to alter and add to the Fish Brook pumping station, $150,000 for revaluation of the town — a program proposed and rejected at two previous town meetings, $150,000 for drafting a master plan for the town and $150,000 to acquire land on Park street for parking.

Among rezoning articles, is one asking for a change from residence district to industrial for a parcel of land on Frontage road which contains the Knights of Columbus building and is adjacent to some property already classed as industrial.

Establishment of flood hazard zones in areas bordering the Shawsheen river is also on the agenda.

An article submitted by private citizens calls for appointment of a committee by the town manager to study tax relief for senior citizens.

There will be consideration of continued local bus service either through joining the Merrimack Valley Transit Authority or subsidizing the Andover operation of the Trombly Motor Coach service outright by the town.

Karl Haartz has articles in the warrant seeking a procedural direction for town meeting regarding cutting off debate, and another asking for an audit of accounts.

These are among the highlights of the warrant which also includes various street acceptances and regular items such as $50,000 to continue the town's storm drainage improvement program, along with statutory items.

Town meeting is scheduled to begin Monday, April 24.

Board Approves Requested Relief Will Seek Re-election To School Board

Elaine Viehmann

School Committeeman Elaine Viehmann is seeking another three-year term on the board, in order to carry out some of the decisions it's made in recent months.

She says she was reluctant to run again this year because of the "tremendous increase in time demands on the school committee in recent months."

"These, added to the pressures of campaigning will be very burdensome," she said, "yet I am aware that the committee is working very well together at the moment — often in disagreement — yet always willing to discuss and work together to find appropriate solutions."

"I am also aware that I have spent three years gaining a level of expertise about Andover's schools that is very useful in this decision-making process.

"The committee is involved in some very important decision-making right now associated with secondary facilities. Whatever decision is reached will be the result of thorough and lengthy study. It is important that the same group that has studied and reached these decisions be the one to present them to the town, and if they are accepted, develop the educational specifications which will be used for architectural planning."

During her three years on the committee, Mrs. Viehmann has served on a team or as the committee's long negotiator for two consecutive contracts with the teachers, with administrators, aides, and currently, with secretaries.

She has served on the long range financial planning and curriculum and personnel subcommittees, and recently was the committee's delegate to the Committee to Study Declining Enrollments.

She has also served as committee secretary.

Mrs. Viehmann lives at 35 Lucerne Drive with her husband, Norman and two teen-age daughters. Two older children have already completed Andover schools.

Mrs. Viehmann is teacher-director of the Christ Church Nursery School and has participated in many community organizations. She is a member of the Boards of the Smith Purdon Fund and Big Brother/Big Sister. She has been president of both the Merrimack Valley Association for the Education of Young Children and the Andover Chapter of American Field Service.

The Zoning Board of Appeals has acted quickly in allowing a change in the variance granted for conversion of the Sacred Heart building in Shawsheen.

Petitioners appeared before the board at a hearing last Thursday asking relief from conditions of the variance granted in June, 1977, in order to proceed with the project.

Approved by the board, in a decision filed with the town clerk Monday, were provisions to protect the Springfield Savings and Loan bank, as the mortgagee, and also to extend deadlines for conveyance of the property.

Under terms of the variance granted in June, following a hearing for a special permit held last February, Crowninshield Corp., was to have taken title to the property by Dec. 31, 1977. Due to the complication in which the lending institution insisted on some protection for their investment, the property was not transferred by that date. The date has now been extended to May 31, 1978.

Crowninshield, the developer, which will convert the former school to 87 apartments, with no exterior changes, must obtain a certificate of occupancy for the building by Sept. 1, 1979.

The Springfield bank, on advice of counsel, asked that a change be made in the conditions of the variance to allow protection of their investment of over $1 million in the proposed conversion of the property.

Originally the permit was granted to Crowninshield and principals of the architectural firm of Anderson and Notter.

But the financial institution wanted some protection, if, for any reason the principals could not complete the work as indicated.

The zoning board agreed to provide the relief by amending a condition to include provisions that the work must be completed, as indicated on plans submitted and approved by the board, by the first mortgagee or successor to the first mortgagee.

This provides the protection sought by the town, and inherent in the granting of the special permit, that the plans as approved by the zoning board must be followed, whether by Crowninshield or a subsequent owner of the property.

The alteration in the variance was supported by the selectmen, and industrial development commission at the Thursday hearing.

Granting of the relief is expected to accelerate the conveyance of the property and the construction work, as well as move along the acquisition of the accompanying land and Cardinal Cushing gymnasium by the town, a part of the total package.

Elm Street Attention Scheduled

Reconstruction of Elm street from the Andover line to Washington avenue is scheduled to begin as soon as weather permits.

The contract for the work has been awarded to the J. P. And C. Construction Co. of North Andover and will include replacement of water main, building of sidewalks and a new hot top pavement. The state will do the work and then turn the roadway over to the town.

The street has been a problem for several years, particularly during this time of year when deep ruts are caused by the weather conditions.

The Roof Problems At Bancroft

Bancroft school has been an attention-grabber ever since its introduction in the model stage almost a decade ago.

It continues to maintain a spotlight in the town's educational system, for better or worse even today, the latest, of course, being problems with its roof.

School officials are now in the process of seeking some engineering and architectural expertise to determine the best method of solving the roof problems.

It is virtually guaranteed that remedy to the situation which compelled school officials to release youngsters from classes in order to clear the roof of snow a week ago, will be a costly one.

To those who will be assigned the task of solving Andover secondary education space problems, there can be a benefit, if the lessons of Bancroft are heeded.

Hailed as an innovative approach to an educational facility, and we're talking about structure, not educational philosophy, the Bancroft has managed to maintain its controversial stature throughout its short existence.

Its unusual and unique design which lends itself well to the open concept, was acclaimed at the outset as being a dramatic break from traditional school construction. Upon completion many awards were presented for the design. People came from all over the nation to view the building.

Now, in addition to the plaques awarded for its uniqueness, and the compliments paid by the thousands of visitors, the town continues to pay, or face payment of remedial action.

A few years ago, because of the building being basically constructed of wood, it was deemed necessary to install an adequate sprinkler system to protect the building and the town.

Now, its "unique" peaks cascade water and snow into valleys which result in expansion of the tongue and roof boards underneath, bending the ceiling below, eventually dropping the water into the classrooms and corridors area.

Rugs are replaced due to damage on a regular basis.

While the building is considered structurally sound, it is a costly one to maintain, and will only get worse as time goes by.

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert, who inherited the building at the beginning of his tenure and not a part of the school building and planning process, says it will require some adequate study in order to correct the situation.

We applaud the decision to move slowly on the matter, even though the problem may continue to present disturbance and upset some classroom time for moderate periods.

Proper correction through whatever method is deemed advisable from an engineering standpoint, is a must, if the building is to remain a part of the town's educational plant.

As matters stand, the town will probably face the expense at the October town meeting at the earliest.

As costly as the remedy may be, we would suggest that those planning for resolve of the secondary school space problems keep Bancroft in mind and not aim for awards or uniqueness, but tend more toward functional buildings to withstand New England weather.

Bancroft has proven that uniqueness and awards are most costly.

Turbulence On Elm Street

Governor Michael S. Dukakis
State House
Boston, Mass.

Dear Guv:

Thought that little bit of informality would get us off to a pleasant start to discuss a vexing problem which is soon to be corrected — namely, Elm street.

The street, a main thoroughfare in the town has been in sad shape for a number of years and, we are given to understand, will be under construction procedures as soon as the weather breaks in the spring.

Meanwhile there are a couple of things we'd like you to consider.

First, keep an eye on the perpetuating pot holes which could well produce record profits for such companies as tire manufacturers, shock-absorber dealers, etc.

Last week drivers proceeding over Elm street resembled competitors in a demolition derby, dodging potholes and each other along the way. At one particular location, the bon-jarring rut was decorated with a protruding expansion rod from the old cement highway.

Some attention has been given since to filling in the ruts and making the road at least somewhat passable, and not representing a practice course for those who might be exposed to airline turbulence.

Major problem number two stems from the terminus point of the reconstruction work.

All reference to the proposed project indicates the work will be done from the North Andover line to Washington Avenue in Andover.

There's a small section over the Andover line to Wilson's Corner which is in equally deplorable shape, and we trust that this area will not be overlooked.

Some engineers assure that certainly the work will extend to the Merrimack College driveway.

We were just wondering that in this election year, our patience in getting the street in decent shape — a better than five year effort — would be rewarded by insuring that the road will be completely improved through to Wilson's corner.

Sincerely,
Elm Street Drivers

Down The Years With The Townsman

THE TOWNSMAN, FEBRUARY 2, 1978

75 Years Ago — February, 1903

The parish of the Free Church voted at their meeting this week to purchase the estate on Elm street known as the Kimball property, subject to examination of the title. Included in the deal, if consummated will be two houses and lot with frontage of 183 feet.

At the 192nd annual meeting of the South church held this week, it was reported that the membership has risen to 365 during the past year. M. Edward Gutterson was elected clerk and John Alden treasurer.

Fire Log

The following is a report of the activities of the Andover Fire Department for the period commencing Jan. 24 and ending Jan. 30, 1978.

Jan. 26 — 13 Jefferson Rd., Fred Peiken, investigation of boiler problem. George Pucak, 6 Hampton Lane, investigation of boiler problem. Mrs. Baker, 10 Granada Way, investigation of electrical problem. Kenneth Lansdowne, 162 Highplain Rd., cellar fire-newspapers. Purity Supreme Warehouse, water flow.

A still alarm for a fire in an oil stove on North Main street presented some problem to firemen this week. First, due to the nature of the fire sand had to be obtained to extinguish the blaze. Getting to the fire was a major difficulty with the ice conditions bothering the horses and swinging the fire wagons to and fro along the street.

George Sanders is making rural free mail boxes, which are in considerable demand with the advent of the new service to be provided by the post office department in February.

Jan. 27 — I.R.S. Lowell St., accidental alarm. 23 Tewksbury St., electric stove short circuit. Rock Ridge Rd., car fire. Pomeroy Rd., chimney fire.

Jan. 29 — Herman Freedman, 4 Suncrest Rd., electrical problem.

Jan. 30 — Robert Blank, 11 Bradley Rd., washing machine. Phillips Academy Cage, false alarm. Dr. Thomas Johnson, washing machine.

The Andover Fire Department ambulance responded to a total of Twenty-nine calls during this same period.

A.A. Herous of Lawrence is building a club house on North Main street at Union street. It is to be used as private quarters for the equestrian club and will have two towers with a promenade.

50 Years Ago — February, 1928

A high water tower constructed of wood on the property of George Flint on Bailey Road, West Andover was destroyed by fire Saturday afternoon. It is believed that sparks from an engine in the pump house caused the blaze.

The planning board has set hearing dates to show plans for the zoning system to be introduced at the annual town meeting.

Under a new name and a new location, the Snow Sanitorium formerly located on Florence street, will welcome the public to Shawsheen hospital on Argyle street this Sunday. All equipment and conveniences will be on display for residents of the community.

The largest audience in the history of George Washington Hall was in attendance last Friday evening for the recital by Rachmaninoff. Arrangements are now complete for a concert by famed cellist Pablo Casals on Feb. 15.

A bill has been presented to the legislature seeking a lowering of telephone rates and also a determination of whether a flat rate should be charged for calls between Andover and Lawrence.

25 Years Ago — February, 1953

Selectmen, who have taken over the operation of the police department since the death of Chief George A. Dane in November, are alternating the direction of the force between Sgts. David L. Nicol and William R. Hickey.

The town will be asked to transfer $10,000 from the parking meter fund to the town for the purchase of a parking area for downtown Andover. Selectmen have several sites in mind.

More than 25 tons of paper were collected for the 1953 polio drive by a group of firemen and volunteer assistants last weekend under the general supervision of James W. Deyermund.

June and Jean Steiner, two daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steiner, 1 Union St., have started a nationwide tour with a musical and dramatic show, which opened recently in John Hancock Hall, Boston.

Selectmen Monday night appointed Joseph S. Auchterlione, Roland H. Archambeault and Dan Naylor to the auxiliary police department.

Warriors Continue Winning Ways

By Jess Parks

Andover High and Central Catholic do not get along very well. Many remember the Thanksgiving Football game and the eternal Andover goal line stand, if not that, who can forget the humiliating loss (43 points) suffered by Central at the hands of the Warriors during the Christmas tournament. Central came to Andover Monday night looking to average these past defeats, and they failed.

Central bit the dust once again as the Warriors used an impenetrable zone defense to hold Central to under 40 points for the second time this year beating their arch-rivals 61-39.

It was outside shooting which carried the Andover attack and when that happens it is usually Geoff Bragdon who gets the points. Bragdon tallied the opening two baskets and would go on to score 10 first quarter points, Central did have some luck in the early going; it was a one point ballgame at 12-11 until Bragdon led a 10-0 blitz to end the quarter at 22-11.

However, Central bounced back 10 with 7, 26-19, in the second period. It was here where the zone defense used by Andover would manifest itself. Andover reeled off 22 straight points over the remainder of the second quarter and on into the third. A. J. DeFusco led a 12-0 spurt which made the score 38-19 at the half, and then the Warriors scored 10 more unanswered points to pen the second half, and make the score 48-19. However, it was at this point when the Andover offense died. Central outscored the Warriors 20-13 for the remainder of the game to save themselves from another 40 point embarrassment and salvage a more "respectable" defeat, 61-39.

The nicest surprise of the game was the performance of Greg Nicastro, who entered the game for Eric Sullivan and subsequently scored a personal high of 8 points as well as grabbing 6 rebounds.

Sullivan, although only playing one half, still managed to collect 9 rebounds and 6 points. Geoff Bragdon was the high scorer with 16 points, but he also dazzled Central and the crowd with some excellent passing. A. J. DeFusco regained his outside touch, which was missing in the past couple of games, to score 8 points. Mike Hart scored 8 for the Warriors and was his above-average self at the boards, taking in nine rebounds.

For Central, Mike Iby had 7 points, and both Gene Dipoto and substitute John Lavellee had 6 points.

J.V.'s Romp Over Central

By Jess Parks

The Andover Guard has arrived!

The backcourt finally made it to the big time as Manny Silva and Larry Warrabee combined for 23 points to lead the Andover High J.V. basketball team to a 71-31 romp over Central Catholic, Monday night.

The Guard wasn't everything, though. The Warrior bench put in just about as many points as the starters and those 71 points were spread out to cover almost every play.

Rip Williams and Manny Silva led the team's first-quarter blitz in which the Warriors outscored Central 24-8. Williams had 7 first quarter points and Silva added 6.

The Central Catholic offense never got off the ground. It's 11 second-quarter points were the highest they would get in any one quarter, whereas the Warriors were simply unrelenting and opened up their lead to 42-19 at the half.

In the second half, although the Andover offense stalled somewhat, Central Catholic faded completely, scoring only six points in each of the third and fourth quarters.

The two guards were definitely the keys in this game. Silva equalled his game high total of 12 points, and Larrabee set a personal high of 11 points. The two instituted an almost endless fast break while they were in the game.

While they weren't in the game, the compensated nicely for their absence. Mike Donahue led the bench with 7 points, Bo White added 5, all coming on a hot streak in the second quarter. Melvin Berger, Glynn and Steve Doherty all had 4 points.

Rip Williams was as usual the dominating force at the boards, but the Warrior forward also added 9 points.

For Central Larry Cananaugh led the team with 10 points, Jim Thompson added 6 points.

Andover, 80-31

The Andover High J.V. basketball team proved that it can play football as well as basketball as they devastated a hopeless Wilmington team 80-31, last Friday night at Andover.

The Warriors controlled every aspect of

Andover, 52-46

Close, but no cigar. The Wilmington Wildcats almost pulled off their second major upset of the year. The Warriors of Andover high while not playing their best ball of the year, managed to stave off Wilmington and collect their 12th victory by beating the Wildcats 52-46.

The Warriors seem to be able to play effectively only in a fast paced ballgame. When the tempo of the game slows, the Andover offense becomes muddled and ineffective. For three quarters the game was slow, it was only in the fourth quarter when the warriors speeded up the pace were they able to master the Wildcats.

Player of the Game: Dave Farrell, together with his amazing ability to get the Andover offense moving, gets the honors. This is not the first time Farrell has done it either. The tactic of putting Dave into the game has worked as a minor scale many times, and more noticeably, if one will remember, in the championship game of the Christmas tournament against Lawrence. In that game he helped the Warriors overcome a 12 point lead to win. Although he only scored 6 points, his lightning quickness speeds up the tempo of the game which is all-important to the success of the Warrior offense.

The Jabuars ran their undefeated string to eight in last week's Andover youth Basketball League action while the Lakers remained perfect thru five games. The Intermediate division, inactive last week because of conflicting school activities is led by Boston College with a 7-0 record.

Junior Division

Lions-11, Cougars-10

The Cougars, dropping their third straight one-point decision, were again frustrated in their quest for their first elusive victory. Trailing by four at the half and again after three periods, the Cougars Paul Oshan returned from a first period ankle injury to key a comeback which fell just short. The Cougars Joey Flossman had a big night on the boards while Ed McParland an Eric Shannon had outstanding defensive efforts.

Lions: Greg Hopwood-4, Mark PLatti-3, John Tateosian-2 and Dan Winterson-2. 7-4-11.

Cougars: Oshan-5, Shannan-2, John Terrion-2 and Flossman-1. 3-7-10.

Jaguars-15, Panthers-11

The Jaguars pulled away from a 7-7 tie after three periods to rack up their eight consecutive victory, the longest AYBL streak this season. Trailing by one at the half, the Panthers rallied to tie after three quarters. The Jaguars finally pulled away in the final period behind Brian Mackey and Dan Sheehan. John Beardsley, Mike Melia and Charlie Lowe had fine defensive games for the Panthers.

Jaguars: Mackey-9 and Sheehan-6. 6-9-15.

Panthers: Beardsley-4, Tom Lutz-4, Lowe-2 and Melia-1. 5-6-11.

Tigers-21, Leopards-9

The Tigers, making comebacks routine lately, did it again at the expense of the Panthers. Trailing by seven at the half, the Tigers defense keyed by Kevin Bardsley and Steve Blair, got tough in the second half while the shooters found their eyes. The Leopards defense, outstanding in the first half in holding the Tigers scoreless, was led by Jon Ruben.

Tigers: Tim Perry-12, Larry Aiello-5, Blair-2 and Rob Padva-2. 0-21-21.

Leopards: Mark Doherty-6, Paul Kelly-2 and Matt Ostrowski-1. 7-2-9.

their third straight loss. After jumping out to a ten point halftime lead, it appeared the Knicks had the game comfortably in hand. The Kings, however, opened the second half red hot, cutting the margin to 27-23 after three periods with Bill DiAdamo and Scott Toben keying the defense. The Knicks then staged a last period rally of their own, outscoring the Kings 11-8 for the deficit to one at the half. A 18-5 bulge in the third period iced the game for the Lakers as the teams played the final quarter even. The Lakers win was a total team effort with all but two players hitting the scoring column.

Lakers: Ted Liszewski-18, Jay Flynn-8, Barry Bloom-7, Dennis Glynn-3, Bob Kimmerle-2, Connie Twomey-2, Todd Young-2 and Glenn Acciard-1. 13-30-43.

Hawks: Glen Johnson-12, Tim Hart-6, Bob Curtin-4, Mark Haddad-3, Joe Zemis-3 and Paul Marad-2. 14-16-30.

Celtics-43, Nets-26

The defending champion Celtics picked up their third straight victory over the Nets. The Celts used big first and third quarters to ice their win, outscoring the Nets 10-3 and 15-2. The Nets had margins of two and one in the second and last quarters.

Celtics: Mike Yuska-17, Ben Bram-8, Jack Kramer-6, John Barrett-5, Bob Emberley-4 and Adam Wise-3. 16-27-43.

Nets: Mike MacDonald-6, Tom Stedman-6, Jim Dietzel-4, Mike Blair-4, Mark Rosen-3 and Kevin Wilson-3. 11-15-26.

Panthers, Pick-Ups Lead League Division

With five weeks to go until the playoffs, there is a two team tie for first place in the "Over 32 Years" division of the Recreation Cjommunity Schols Men's Basketball League.

The Panthers, led by Frank Monette, Ken Horne and Walter McHendry, suffered an early season loss in overtime and have gone unbeaten since.

Tied with the Panthers with a 7-1 record are the Pick-Ups. The Pick-Ups have a potent offense that has several players usually scoring in double figures. Howie and John Larrabee, Harold Payson and Paul Kelley have been the most consistent in putting the ball through the hoop for their first place club.

The Sweepers looked very tough in their first few games which included victories over the two division leaders, but recent upset losses to less talented teams have found captain Milt Beaudine's squad with a 6-2 record. The Sweepers need big games from Dave Maher and Keng-Jen Lee if they are to challenge for the playoff.

The new entry in the division, the "Reds" have a 2-6 record. Playing for the first time as a team, the Reds play an extremely tough defensive game. Early in the season the new entry gave the division leading Panthers one of their best games of the season when they carried their game into overtime and came up two points short of a victory. Top performers for the Reds have been Paul Lemaitre, Bill Hartnett and Jim Hallilce.

Tied for the division cellar are the Marauders and L. Mencis Realty with identical 1-7 records. Tom Messina leads all Marauder scorers and is one of the top shooters in the senior division. For L. Mencis Realty, Paul Twomey, Peter Hager and John Leeman have been leading the team offensively. While the bottom clubs may have poor records, their won-loss performances do not reflect the fact that they have been outmatched in many of their contests. The four top teams will qualify for the divisions playoffs which begin in early March.

Track Team Nails Second Place

By Jess Parks

Andover High's Indoor track team is now in sole possession of second place in the Merrimack Valley Track League as a result of two victories last week over Chelmsford, 48-38, an Dracut, 77-9.

In Chelmsford, the Warriors faced their first tough (6-0) opponent since the loss to Methuen. The meet was close from beginning to end and was not decided until the last event.

After falling behind to Chelmsford 12-6, after the first two events, the Warriors pulled a turnaround as Rick Collins, Bob Flaherty, and Bill Lucy swept first, second and third respectively in the 300 yard run. This gave Andover the lead they would never relinquish, 15-12.

Although Andover kept the lead, they could not increase it significantly. Twice it reached 7, after Jim Hamilton's first and Rich Maloof's third placings in the 1000 yard run made it 26-19; a dn again after Keven Worthley's first place in the 2-mile made it 35-28.

However, the lead was cut down again and Mark Hopkins first-place in the high jump — the last individual event — could only put the Warriors up by 5, 43-38.

So it all came down to the relay, a five point event with a winner-take-all scoring system. If Chelmsford won, it would be a draw. Andover, however, pulled out all stops and won the relay in a time of 3:40.5 to chalk up an important victory.

The meet with Dracut could hardly be represented by the word "meet". It was more like a dark-alley mugging. In crunching the middies, Andover took first in every event and at one point, outscored them 36-0 while sweeping 4 straight events. Dracut was technically eliminated from the possibility of a win during the mile run when Frank Griggs' first place time of 5:01.5 which put the Warriors up by 46 points, more than Dracut could score even if they swept every remaining event and the relay.

The two wins put Andover's record at 7-1, one behind Methuen, who leads the league with an 8-0 record.

Results of the two meets were as follows:

South-Baptist Stays Undefeated

By Rick Harrison

South-Baptist remained undefeated and retained a half-game lead over St. Robert's D following recent action in the Andover Church Basketball League Intermediate Gold Division.

South-Baptist, 40-33

S-B trailed St. Robert's C 8-6 after one period, inched ahead 19-17 at halftime, then used a 13-7 third quarter burst as the springboard to a hard-fought 40-33 decision.

Scott Zimmerman led three South-Baptist players into double figures with 15 points, including six in the pivotal third period. Billy Vickers was close behind with 13, Darren Lowe netted 10 including six in the third, and John Recesso had a bucket.

Tony Romano topped St. Robert's C with 14 points, Robbie Veilleux canned 8, Neal Saunders 6, Buddy Ward 3 and Tom O'Brien 2 points.

Ken Salava and Pete Ouellette also starred for St. Robert's, while Jim DeNon-court played well for S-B.

St. Robert's D, 38-22

St. Robert's D, leading only 23-20 after three quarters, broke away from pesky West Parish in the final stanza to collect a 38-22 win.

Jim Terrior poured through 17 points for the winners, while Bobby French added 11 including seven in the big 15-point final quarter.

Tom Middleton hooped 8 points, six in the last stanza, and Jim Griggs had one basket.

For West Parish, minus big gun Steve Johnson, high-scoring honors were shared by Jim Lowe and Ricky Desmarais with 8 points apiece. J. R. Lindquist contributed 4 and Danny Kimball had a basket.

St. Augustine A, 39-24

Dick Kelley stuffed 18 points to spark St. Augustine A, which constructed a 21-7 halftime lead and fought back a third quarter challenge by St. Augustine B for a 39-24 victory.

Brian Mackey supported hot-hand Kelley with 9 points, Mark Connolly added 6 and single buckets were netted by Pete Scanlon, Jim Wiseman and Kevin Lynch.

Joe Nerden led the counterattack for the B-team with 13 points, and solo fieldgoals were pocketed by John Nerden, Ken Doherty, Joe Wescott, Glen Markey and Tony Holbrook. Mark Perlowski swished a free throw.

South-Baptist, 31-23

Trailing 9-6 after one period and tied 13-13 at halftime, South-Baptist put its offense into overdrive and spurred 12-4 in the third quarter to defeat St. Augustine A, 31-23.

Billy Billy Vickers flipped through 15 points including eight in the third session for S-B. Scott Zimmerman had 9, Darren Lowe 5 and Pedro Gleason a floor connection for the victors.

Lefty Dick Kelley again led St. Augustine A with a 10-point double-digit effort, while Tom Bolduc notched 6 points, Mark Connolly 4 and Mike Surette 3 markers.

The key in the second half were Vickers' lefthanded hook shots and a tenacious S-B defense.

West Parish, 24-14

West Parish jumped to a 12-2 first quarter lead and then played St. Augustine B even the rest of the way for a 24-14 victory.

Steve Johnson led the WP charge with 16 points, eight of them in the opening quarter (including a perfect 4-for-4 at the foul line), and eight more in the last period to ice it.

Jamie Lowe tossed through 4 third period points, while J. R. Lindquist and Rick Desmarais added first stanza buckets.

Danny Kimball and Lindquist did some excellent playmaking along the way, while all-around top efforts were given by Eric Nickerson and Andy Thomson.

Glen Markey led the way for St. Augustine B with 6 points, Tony Holbrook flipped through 4 in the third period, Joe Nerden had a fourth quarter basket and Rich Nerden 2 late free throws.

St. Robert's D, 36-27

St. Robert's D, ahead 12-11 at halftime, followed the sharpshooting of Bobby French and Jim Terrior to a 12-4 third quarter spread enroute to a 36-27 victory over St. Robert's C.

Tony Romano's outside shooting kept St. Robert's C in the running over the first two periods.

St. Robert's D, however, converted 17-of-33 floor shots (52%) and French, after an 0-for-2 first half, was 6-for-6 in the second half.

Jim Terrior contributed his best all-around floor game of the season, while defensive stalwarts for the victors were Dan Poore, Tim Moynihan and Dan Boland.

French and Terrior closed with 13 points apiece, Todd Sleath netted 6 and Tom Middleton 4 to pace the D-team.

Romano was game-high with 14 for the C-unit, Buddy Ward had 7, Neil Saunders 4 and Robbie Veilleux 2.

Vale Paces Intermediates

By Rick Harrison

Ballardvale United remained undefeated atop the Andover Church Basketball League's Intermediate Blue Division, boosting its record to 5-0 recently.

Ballardvale, 28-16

BU overcame an 8-6 first quarter deficit to sink St. Augustine C, previously unbeaten, by a 28-16 count.

Rodney Hollenbeck netted 12 points and Steve Todd added 10 for Ballardvale, while Jeff Crowninshield had 4 points and Scott Stephens one bucket.

Paul Burke led the answering fire for St. Augustine (2-1) with 8 points, Tim Reilly hooped 6 and Joe Madden had a first quarter bucket.

St. Robert's B, 28-3

St. Robert's B went over the .500 mark with a convincing 28-3 conquest of Christ Church B.

Jeff Vecchi led the three-way attack with 12 points, Kevin Ward chipped in 8 and John Veilleux notched 8 for the winners, who broke a tie game with a 20-point second quarter explosion.

Steve Blair did all the damage for C-C, swishing 3 free throws. Chris Wright, Billy Earnshaw and Matt Leonard also played well.

Warriors

the game, and the Wildcats, with their frustration mounting throughout the game, would commit four technical fouls, 33 personal fouls, and have one player kicked out of the game.

Andover stormed to a 14-0 lead during the first quarter, largely riding the efforts of junior center Todd Orlando, who had 8 first quarter points. The warriors lead stretched to 16, 20-4, by the end of the first period.

Although Andover was also not immune to the general sloppiness, nothing could compare with the season-high 51 foul shots taken by the Warriors. Andover made 31 of those shots. The most promising aspect of the game was the Andover bench, which was sloppy but nevertheless impressive, especially in the fourth quarter.

High scores in the game was Rip Williams who used his talented free-throw touch to get most of his 16 points. Larry Larrabee played perhaps his best game of the year, scoring ten points. Todd Orlando, who saw but brief action, made the best of it, scoring 10 points.

For the beleaguered Wildcats, Rich Scanlon was the high scorer, he put in almost half the Wildcats total with his 12 points. Rod Millett also add 6 points.

St. Robert's A, 22-5

St. Robert's A, protecting a slim one-point lead at halftime, dominated the second half enroute to a 22-5 triumph over Christ Church A.

Kevin Byrne tossed in 6 fourth period points to share game-high honors with St. Robert's teammate John Terrior.

Jon MacLean and Brian Molloy stuffed 4 points apiece for the victors, while Mike Sleath had a last period basket.

Beth Deacon and Sheryl Hough canned the C-C fieldgoals, Allen Gable had a second quarter free throw, and Roger Fisk also played well.

Ballardvale, 29-14

Ballardvale stopped St. Robert's B, 29-14, outscoring the losers 14-2 over the middle two periods.

Steve Todd dunked 15 points, Rodney Hollenbeck 10, Jeff Crowninshield 2 and Scott Stephens two points for United.

Greg Baker and Rich Brouillard were other BU standouts.

Jeff Vecchi canned 8 points, Tim Miller 4 and John Veilleux had a first stanza basket for St. Robert's B.

Scoring Race

It's strictly a three-man race at this point, as Steve Todd is No. 1 with 65 points, Rodney Hollenbeck runner-up with 58 and Jeff Vecchi third with 41.

Apgar, Pellegrino Lead Bantams In Losing Cause

By Rick Harrison

Things continued to break badly for the Andover Bantam A hockey team this past week, as the locals dropped a pair of decisions to the visiting Worcester Bantams (6-2) and Pittsfield Bantams (8-0).

Worcester jumped to a quick 3-0 first period lead against Coach Dick Neal's crew, then made it 4-0 at 0:23 of the second stanza.

Defenseman Rick Apgar put Andover on the board 30 seconds later, 0:53, taking a pass from Jon Pelletier and depositing his second seasonal goal.

Andover received a powerplay opportunity one minute later, but couldn't cash in, and Worcester upped the count to 5-1 midway through the period.

Apgar followed with his second goal of the game and third on the season for Andover at 8:32, assist to newcomer Bill Thayer who set Rick up for a 15-foot finish.

Worcester capped the scoring late in the stanza, just 16 seconds into a powerplay, and that was it as neither club could hit the twine during the final period.

"Rick Apgar and J. J. Pellegrino played well for us," observed Neal, "and this was a strong Worcester team."

Thayer joined the Bantam A crew to stay, as the defenseman was elevated from the Bantam B squad.

Kris Williams worked the first period in net against Worcester, and Dave Leitch toiled the final two stanzas at Merrimack College.

Pittsfield, 8-0

After a Friday game against Medford was cancelled, Andover greeted Western Mass. powerhouse Pittsfield at Phillips Academy and played the role of genial host . . . unintentionally.

"Pittsfield was also a good team, but in spite of the score we had several good scoring chances and could have made it much closer," related Neal.

"Our offense, even though we were shut out, set up better and looked much better than it had the previous few games.

"Rick Apgar was out with the flu, and Tom Fabiani remains sidelined although his cast has been removed this week," added Neal.

Pittsfield whipped home three goals in the opening six minutes, led 5-0 after one period, 7-0 after two and added its last goal in the opening minute of the third session.

Dave Leitch was in net for the first period and Kris Williams for the last two.

Schedule

Andover, now 3-9-0, returned to action earlier this week at Newburyport, and the locals host Brunswick, Maine this Saturday at 6 p.m. at Phillips Academy.

Next week Andover has a home-and-home two-game series with North Andover Monday and Tuesday (8:30 p.m., Merrimack), and the following Sunday the locals host Lawrence at PA (4 p.m.), then journey to Worcester Friday night.

In approximately three weeks the team will embark on its annual Canadian trip to Toronto and Oshawa, Ontario.

Real Estate

By DOUGLAS N. HOWE

REALTOR

WHAT GOES WITH HOUSE?

Real estate is usually defined as the land and everything attached to it, such as: buildings, trees, shrubs, etc. The buyer normally gets all of the real estate, but none of the owner's personal property. The problem arises when personal property has become a part of the real estate. This is called a fixture and does pass with the real estate.

might include: shades, heaters, ranges, screens, storm windows, lighting fixtures, etc.

It is important that the seller spell out specifically in his sales agreement exactly what he intends to give to the buyer as part of real estate. This will save misunderstanding at the closing, and sometimes save a sale.

There are three usual test which must be satisfied. Has the personal property been permanently annexed to the real estate? Is it intended to become part of the real estate? And finally, what is the local custom? Usual fixtures the three year term on the board.

Whether his decision will have an effect on others seeking a position on the board remains to be seen. Selectman Philip J. Salamone, appointed to the board last April, is seeking a full three year term on the board.

Mrs. Virginia Cole has announced her intent to seek the one year term made available through the resignation of Richard J. Bowen, now city manager in West Virginia. Terrence Prout, 13 William St., obtained nomination papers from the town clerk this week for the one year term.

uniformity in colors, paints and the like, and establish a central supply set-up.

The committee's main objection seemed to be that painting is still a part of custodians' job descriptions.

Seifert, however, said that on a priority basis, the full-time painter might be more important to the maintenance department than some of the items already approved for the expense budget, and asked if they could make another presentation before the budget is finally passed.

A part-time maintenance driver is now working through CETA, and the committee expressed hope another would be forthcoming.

While the administration had requested $25,000 as a ceiling for the labor attorney, the committee cut the figure by $10,000 because they won't be negotiating with all six or seven unions next year.

The Andover Education Association, the biggest of the lot, is in the middle of a three-year contract, so won't be coming up again during 1978-79.

The committee is continuing review of its first program — based budget, and with Tuesday night as a indicator, will be spending more time on salaries.

Ahouse noted Tuesday night that in the past, the committee has spent 20 hours deliberating on $2 million (the expense portion of their budget) and only half an hour on $8 million (the salary portion).

The committee will meet again Tuesday, at 7:30 p.m. in Stowe School.

Seifert said that in changing lines, he would keep in mind the committee's desire to redistrict youngsters only once in their elementary careers, and to keep all youngsters in a family at the same elementary school.

Tea Ceremony

On Friday evening, Feb. 3 at 8:30, the Peabody Museum of Salem will present Alan Palmer, tea master, in a demonstration of the Japanese Tea Ceremony. The mysteries of this rite may be demonstrated and explained but "The art is never mastered," says Palmer, whose name in the tea world is Sosei. He was awarded this name with the designation of Tea Master after four years of intensive study in Kyoto at the Urusenke School. This school has been run by the Sen family for four hundred years. The present master, under whom Palmer studied, is the fifteenth direct descendant of Sen Rikyo.

Asst. Supt Month Or So Away

Supt. Kenneth R. Seifert said this week that he and a visiting team had dropped in on the two finalists for assistant superintendent in their present school communities, and felt both were "highly respected" and "good, strong family men."

The two are having final interviews this week.

If an offer is made within the week, Business Manager Edward Maguire said that getting the new assistant on board could still be a month away. Depending on the individual involved, he said, he might want to give four to six weeks notice at his old job.
